

George Clinton

& P. Funk All Stars

Make My Funk The P-Funk

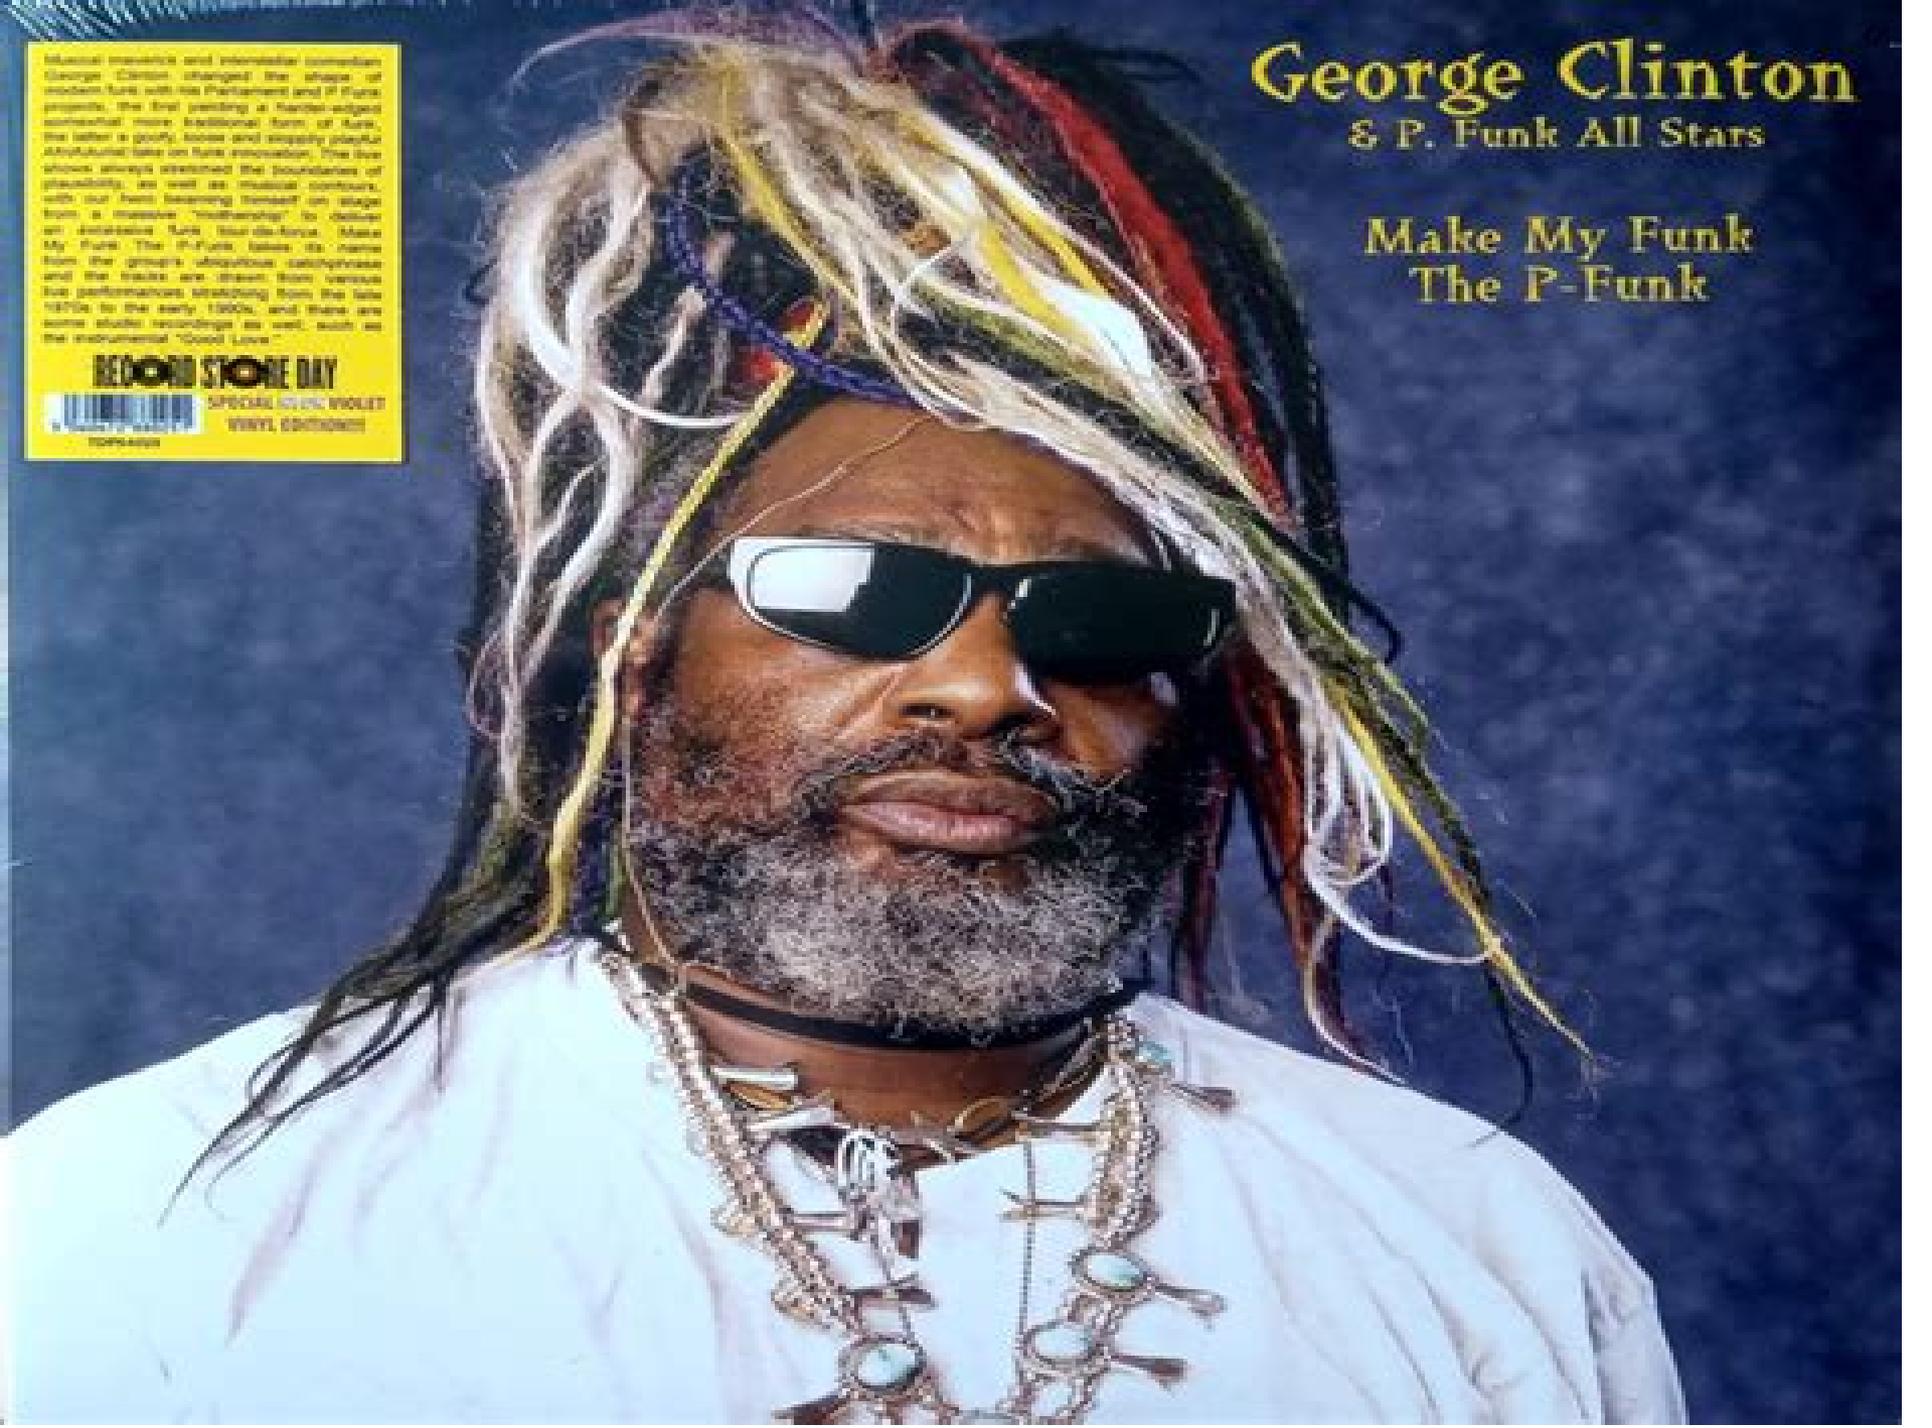

Musical innovator and incredible comedian George Clinton changed the shape of modern funk with his Parliament and P-Funk groups, the first putting a harder-edged, somewhat more theatrical form of funk, the latter a goofy, loose and wildly playful Afrofuturist take on funk innovation. The live shows always stretched the boundaries of plausibility, as well as musical conformity, with our fans leaning forward on stage from a massive "motherfucker" to deliver an explosive funk soul performance. Make My Funk: The P-Funk takes its name from the group's ubiquitous catchphrase and the tracks are drawn from various live performances stretching from the late 1970s to the early 1990s, and there are some studio recordings as well, such as the instrumental "Good Love."
