Jim Jarmusch Juan A. Suárez, 2007-08-13 The first major English language study of Jarmusch. At a time when gimmicky action-driven blockbusters ruled Hollywood, Jim Jarmusch spearheaded a boom in independent cinema by making now-classic low-budget films like Stranger than Paradise, Down by Law, and Mystery Train. Jarmusch's films focused on intimacy, character, and new takes on classical narratives. His minimal form, peculiar pacing, wry humor, and blank affect have since been adopted by directors like Sofia Coppola, Hal Hartley, Richard Linklater, and Tsai Ming-liang. Juan A. Suárez identifies and describes an abundance of aesthetic influences on Jarmusch, delving into the director's links to punk, structural film, classic street photography, hip-hop beat literature, and art, and the New York pop vanguard of the late 1970s. At the same time, he analyzes Jarmusch's work from three mutually implicated perspectives: in relation to independent filmmaking from the 1980s to the present as a form of cultural production that appropriates existing icons, genres, and motifs; and as an instance of postmodern politics. A volume in the series Contemporary Film Directors, edited by James R. Naremore.

The Gangster Film Reader Alain Silver, James Ursini, 2007-02 In the 1930s, the gangster film in the United States coincided with a very real and very sensational gangsterism at large in American society. Little Caesar (1931)

The Public Enemy 1931 and Scarface 1932 borrowed liberally from the newspapers and books of the era With the release of just these three motion pictures in barely more than a year s time Hollywood quintessentially defined the genre The characters the situations and the icons from fast cars and tommy guns to fancy fedoras and fancier molls established the audience expectations associated with the gangster film that remain in force to this day As with their Film Noir Reader series using both reprints of seminal articles and new pieces editors Silver and Ursini have assembled a group of essays that presents an exhaustive overview of this still vital genre Reprints of work by such well known film historians as Robin Wood Andrew Sarris Carlos Clarens Paul Schrader and Stuart Kaminsky explore the evolution of the gangster film through the 1970s and The Godfather Parts 2 and 3 comprise two dozen newer articles most of them written expressly for this volume by Ursini and Silver These case studies and thematic analyses from White Heat to the remake of Scarface to The Sopranos complete the anthology
