Environmental Foundations of European History Derwent Stainthorpe Whittlesey,1949 Environmental Foundations of European History Derwent S. Whittlesey,1985-01-01 Society and Economy in Early Modern Europe, 1450-1789 Barry Taylor,1989 A History of International Thought Lucian Ashworth,2014-01-10 International thought is the product of major political changes over the last few centuries especially the development of the modern state and the industrialisation of the world economy While the question of how to deal with strangers from other communities has been a constant throughout human history it is only in recent centuries that the question of foreign relations and especially imperialism and war have become a matter of urgency for all sectors of society throughout the world This book provides the first comprehensive overview of the evolution of Western international thought and charts how this evolved into the predominantly Anglophone field of International Relations Along the way several myths of the origins of International Relations are explored and exposed the myth of the peace of Westphalia the myths of Versailles and the nature of the League of Nations the realist idealist Great Debate myth and the myth of appeasement Major approaches to the study of international affairs are discussed within their context and on their own terms rather than being shoe horned into anachronistic paradigms Written in a clear and accessible style Ashworth s analysis reveals how historical myths have been used as gatekeeping devices and how a critical re evaluation of the history of international thought can affect how we see international affairs today The European Culture Area Alexander B. Murphy,Terry G. Jordan-Bychkov,Bella Bychkova Jordan,2008-08-28 A sixth edition of this book is now available Now in a fully updated fifth edition this premier text has been thoroughly revised to reflect the sweeping changes the past decade has brought to Europe Long hailed for its creativity and intellectual depth the book is now further enriched by the expertise of a new lead author noted geographer Alexander B Murphy In this edition he has focused on Europe s role in the wider world and incorporated new research and teaching approaches in regional geography The topical organization including environment ethnicity religion language demography politics industry and urban and rural life offers students a holistic understanding of the diverse European culture area Landscapes in History Philip Pregill,Nancy Volkman,1999-01-25 The definitive one stop reference to the history of landscape architecture now expanded and revised This revised edition of Landscapes in History features for the first time new information rarely available elsewhere in the literature on landscape architecture in India China Southeast Asia and Japan It also expands the discussion of the modern period including current North American planning and design practices This unique highly regarded book traces the development of landscape architecture and environmental design from prehistory to modern times in Europe the Middle East Asia and North America It covers the many cultural political technological and philosophical issues influencing land use throughout history focusing not only on design topics but also on the environmental impact of human activity Landscape architects urban planners and students of these disciplines will find

here The most comprehensive in depth and up to date overview of the subject Hundreds of stunning photographs and design illustrations A scholarly yet accessible treatment drawing on the latest research in archaeology geography and other disciplines The authors own firsthand observations and travel experiences Insight into the evolution of landscape architecture as a discipline Useful chapter summaries and bibliographies

Mediterranean Europe(s) Matthew D’Auria, Fernanda Gallo, 2022-09-26 This book investigates how ideas of and discourses about Europe have been affected by images of the Mediterranean Sea and its many worlds from the nineteenth century onwards Surprisingly modern scholars have often neglected such an influence and in fact in most histories of the idea of Europe the Mediterranean is conspicuously absent This might partly be explained by the fact that historians have often identified Europe with modernity and the Atlantic world and therefore in opposition to the classical world centred around the Mediterranean This book will challenge such views showing that a plethora of thinkers from the early nineteenth century to the present have refused to relegate the Mediterranean to the past Importance is given to the idea of a distinct meridian thought a notion first set forth by Albert Camus and now reworked by French and Italian thinkers As most chapters argue this might represent an important tool for rethinking the Mediterranean and in turn it might help us challenge received notions about European identity and rethink Europe as the locus of modernity

Mediterranean Europe s Rethinking Europe from its Southern Shores will appeal to researchers and students alike interested in European studies and Mediterranean history
