Gospel Grit Randy Butler, 2013-10-31 What was it like to literally follow Jesus Often we read what Jesus said but don't stop to see what He did Pastor Randy Butler in his often humorous down to earth manner helps us catch a fresh vision of what it must have been like to actually follow Christ Gospel Grit is a call to cultivate the simplicity of trust and obedience in our own following This book fires our imagination What might have taken place around the campfire with Jesus What could have been discussed while walking down a dust plagued road outside of Jerusalem What would Jesus and the disciples have discussed after a day of boating Dr Butler takes us through the Gospels examining the 731 statements that reflect either what Jesus showed us or told us As we go through this book we see a thirty year old carpenter who exchanged careers for a job that paid nothing for the remaining three years of His life We see Him dodging in and out of crowds teaching preaching healing and helping people while at the same time relying on twelve guys to carefully watch what He showed them and listen to what He told them so that years later they would remember those special three years and accurately write down their memories Dr Butler believes these statements in the Gospels are for us today and we can accept the challenge to become more authentic followers of Him living the real Gospel Grit The Gospel at Work in Modern Life Robert Whitaker, 1910
