

Gaslighting: How to Drive Your Enemies Crazy

Eleanor White has written a review of a book by Victor Santoro: Gaslighting: How to Drive Your Enemies Crazy.

In the review she points out that the harassment techniques are both subtle and devious and indicates stalking victims will immediately recognize the techniques. Some of the techniques in the book talk about how to cause disorientation in the victim by sneaking into their home and subtly moving items around, or stealing an item then putting it back at a later date. There is advice on starting a whispering campaign against the target, so multiple people help damage the target's reputation. There are also techniques in the book designed to alienate the target from family members, friends, neighbors, employers, etc. and to make them doubt the target's sanity.
