

The Second Epistle of Paul the Apostle to the

THESSALONIANS

Greeting

1 Paul, Silvanus, and Timothy,

To the church of the Thessalonians in God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ,

Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

God's Final Judgment and Glory

1 We are bound to thank God always for you, brethren, as it is fitting, because your faith grows exceedingly, and the love of every one of you all abounds toward each other.

2 So that we ourselves boast of you before the churches of God for your steadfastness and faith in all your persecutions and tribulations that are manifest to all men.

as if from us, as though the day of Christ had come.

3 Let no one deceive you by any means; for that Day will not come unless the falling away comes first, and the man of sin is revealed, the son of perdition,

4 who opposes and exalts himself above all that is called God or that is worshiped, so that he sits as God in the temple of God, showing himself that he is God.

5 Do you not remember that when I was still with you, I told you these things?

6 And now you know what is restraining that he may be revealed in his own time.

7 For the mystery of lawlessness is already at work, only that he who now restrains will be taken out of the way.

8 And then the lawless one will be revealed, who is the son of perdition, who opposes and exalts himself above all that is called God or that is worshiped, so that he sits as God in the temple of God, showing himself that he is God.
