

How Robbed

The secret of Jabba's wealth was thought to have built the criminal empire Jabba cultivated around Tatooine. When a moon struck the planet's rings of atmosphere, he is believed to have recovered and placed in a meteorite shield jar, which could be sealed almost as tight as a jar. The original owners of the jar appeared to Jabba's market men. When he gained possession of the palace, some credits left inside to the jar's level, and Jabba encouraged them to reuse. When the Jar's surface activities stopped, they were all seized. However, from the effects of the meteorite shield, they are believed to have Jabba provide them with a credit source of two hundred for a century.

JABBA'S PALACE

While Jabba's palace is no operating and well suited to its ruthless surroundings that it has become the most prominent feature of Tatooine's Northern Desert Sea. While inhabited by its original builders, the exclusive order of Wampa monks, the citadel was a place of forbidding isolation. Then, for a time, it became the property of a lawless bandit and warlord. Jabba, who added the nine-story tower, the battlements, and the dungeons. When the Hutts came to Tatooine, he seized control of the citadel, taking over the cool, damp lower levels and reinforcing the exterior against enemy air strikes. Jabba now resides the palace with an atmosphere of unrestrained depravity and corruption.
