English Education A Perspective Of Eton:

An English Education Richard Lawrence Ollard,1982 Teacher Training at Cambridge Pam Hirsch,Mark McBeth,2004 Focusing on Oscar Browning and Elizabeth Hughes this book examines the history of teacher training at Cambridge University and studies the educational ideals and international influence Browning Hughes and the university had

An English Education Richard Lawrence Ollard,1982 Gender, Colonialism and Education Joyce Goodman,Jane Martin,2013-04-15 An examination of the ways in which gender intersects with informal and formal education in England Germany Indonesia South Africa USA and the Netherlands The book looks at various issues including citizenship authority colonialism and education and the construction of national identities Four Centuries of Music Teaching Manuals, 1518-1932 Bernarr Rainbow,2009 Introductions to a variety of texts used for teaching music Bernarr Rainbow is widely recognised as the leading authority on the history of music education from the Greeks up to the present day as attested by his comprehensive study Music in Educational Thought and Practice His ambitious series Classic Texts in Music Education provides editions of manuals covering methods of teaching music from the sixteenth century to the twentieth Professor Rainbow wrote detailed prefaces to the manuals which are conveniently collected in this volume offering insights into and analysis of those who taught music in different times and places and the methods they employed They have been put into full context by GORDON COX Music and the English Public School Bernarr Rainbow,1990 The public schools of England are not supported out of public funds but organised privately outside the State educational system Originally they shared certain features including concentration on the classics training in leadership and a prefect system But music was long absent from the curriculum until efforts to restore it were begun in the mid nineteenth century In this new study the achievements of individual teachers in particular schools to redevelop music there are described The author has assembled first hand accounts of the state of music in leading schools during the critical period of its growth Documentary History of Education in Upper Canada: 1836-1840 Ontario. Department of Education,1895 Current Perspectives on Pedagogy for English as a Lingua Franca Yasemin Bayyurt,Sumru Akcan,2015-03-10 The aim of this edited volume is to examine how current theories and principles underlying English as a Lingua Franca studies contribute to research on present pedagogical practices in ELF contexts The book provides useful insights into pedagogical practices in different ELF settings and knowledge on the pedagogy policy relationship in terms of ELF Global Perspectives on Boarding Schools in the Nineteenth and Twentieth Centuries Daniel Gerster,Felicity Jensz,2022-11-14 In the nineteenth and twentieth centuries thousands of pupils attended boarding schools in various places across the globe Their experiences were vastly different yet they all had in common that they were separated from their families and childhood friends for a period of time in order to sleep eat learn and move within the limited spatial sites of the boarding school This book frames these boarding schools as a global and transcultural phenomenon that is part of larger political and social developments of European imperialism the Cold War and independence movements Drawing together case studies from colonial South Africa colonial India Dutch Indonesia early twentieth century Nigeria Fascist Spain Ghana Nazi Germany nineteenth century Ireland North America and the Soviet Union this edited collection examines the ways in which boarding schools extracted pupils from their original social background in order to train mold and shape them so that they could fit into the perceived position in broader society The book makes the broader argument that framing boarding schools as a global phenomenon is imperative for a deepened understanding of the global and transnational networks that linked people as well as ideas and practices of education and childhood in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries

Education and Empire David McLean, 1999 Education education is a slogan of current government but in the mid nineteenth century it also was at the heart of the debate about Britain's position in the world The social problems accompanying industrialization and rapid urban growth provoked a widespread debate which forced education onto the political agenda and the new ideas about teaching methods curricula and the physical and moral care of children developed rapidly This study based on a unique cache of records of the Admiralty Schools at Greenwich provides an extraordinary and striking insight into the problems and the achievements of mid nineteenth schools The story is enhanced by the connection with the Royal Navy a major arm of empire and provides unprecedented insight into the forces at the root of the sweeping changes of the period

The Education Quarterly, 1983

M.R. James Michael Cox, 1983 French and English Philip Gilbert Hamerton, 1889 Books and Bookmen, 1982

French & English Philip Gilbert Hamerton, 1889 The Collected Letters of Mary Wollstonecraft Mary Wollstonecraft, 2003 Mary Wollstonecraft was one of the most distinctive letter writers of the eighteenth century She talked and thought on paper her letters were a large part of the drama of her life In them we see her grow from an awkward child of fourteen into the pioneering feminist and author of A Vindication of the Rights of Woman and finally into the woman of thirty eight facing death in childbirth This edition contains the complete correspondence of Mary Wollstonecraft including a recently discovered interchange with the historian Catherine Macaulary and the only known fragments of letters to the Swiss artist Fuseli with whom Wollstonecraft had a passionate friendship
