Pre Thornton was born in 1841 at Wendover in Buckinghamshire where his father the Rev Spencer Thornton was Vicar and received his education at Brighton College He commenced the study of Arabic in 1880 when he first visited Egypt and Palestine following the method which he recommends in his First Reading Book namely to begin by reading aloud from a book fully pointed with a Moslem who is accustomed to recite the Qur an Coran in public prayer From 1880 to 1892 he was almost continually in the East As Mrs Thornton who accompanied her husband on all his journeys writes to me He was very quick at languages and thought much of correct pronunciation so that during several visits to Egypt he had one of the students from the University Mosque al Azhar Cairo to read Arabic with him His whole thoughts and time were given up to his projected Series and especially to the Arabic Grammar as he found so many in Egypt Army officers and missionaries who did not care to go to the expense or labour of learning the larger and more difficult Grammars About the Publisher Forgotten
