Hasta Lo Ultimo De La Tierra:

Hispanic Christian Thought at the Dawn of the 21st Century Justo L. González, 2005 In this book Alvin Padilla Roberto Goizueta and Eldin Villafa e bring together an impressive array of Hispanic scholars from across the theological disciplines to articulate just such a comprehensive construction of Hispanic theology Their purpose is to delineate the common elements in Hispanic biblical studies theology and ethics and to draw these together into a statement of what Hispanic theology has to say to the larger theological community and to the church To do so they organize their presentation around four theological streams that run through Hispanic theology Reading Scripture from the Margins The contributors will present a reading of the biblical text that incorporates into its interpretative methodology the experience of alienation and marginalization the central feature of Hispanic sociohistorical reality Subversive and Liberating Memories The contributors discover the subversive and liberating stories and voices within the Christian tradition and demonstrate how the memory of these liberate Hispanics and others from contemporary oppression Liberating Truth The authors offer fresh perspective on theological truth incorporating the distinctive Hispanic sources locus and expressions Liberating Praxis Drawing on current Hispanic religious experience for example spirituality church life and ministry the authors reflect on the way Hispanic religious experience is changing and how it will change the landscape of Western Christianity in the 21st century
