

OUR DILEMMA, GOD'S SOLUTION

THE PROBLEM OF SIN

Romans 3:23 tells us, "For all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God."

Most of us assume "sin" refers only to the really bad acts, like murder. But sin is anything that breaks God's laws, and it's impossible to go through life without sinning. Look at the Ten Commandments, for example. Here are three of the 10, from Exodus 20:3-17:

You shall not lie.

You shall not steal.

You shall not take the name of God in vain.

If you've broken any of these commandments—even little "white" lies or stealing a pen that doesn't belong to you—you're guilty of breaking God's laws. And that sin creates a gap between you and God.

None of us has treasured God the way we should. We've sought to satisfy ourselves with other things and treated those things as more valuable than God. We've gone our own way.

According to the Bible, we have to pay a penalty for our sin. We can't simply do whatever we want and hope it will all be okay with God. Proverbs 14:12 tells us, "There is a way that seems right to a man, but its end is the way to death."
