The book cover features a central white triangle pointing downwards, which serves as a background for the title and author's name. On either side of this triangle are two large, stylized eyes with thick black outlines, set against a brown, textured background. The left eye is positioned above a green field containing a white crescent moon and a white five-pointed star. The right eye is positioned above a field of horizontal red and white stripes. At the bottom, a red horizontal bar contains the author's name in white capital letters.
