

The Argument

Mom could hear the girls squabbling all the way in the kitchen. It was the third time this week that the sisters had been arguing over something or fighting about nothing. A few minutes later Maria stormed through kitchen and slammed the door as she left.

"Come back here, young lady," Mom firmly stated in her best mother tone of voice. Maria turned around and came back into the kitchen.

"I can't stand living with Felicia another minute," Maria blurted out. "I don't ever want to talk to her again!"

Mom immediately called out, "Felicia, come to the kitchen right now."

While Felicia was on her way, Mom took two of the kitchen chairs and placed them opposite each other but very close together.

"Maria, you sit here and Felicia you sit there." The girls sat facing each other, knees almost touching. "Now you look each other in the eye for five minutes." Mom ordered while she stood there as a referee.

The sisters squirmed at first but Mom was adamant that they stay staring icily at each other for five minutes, saying something about each minute they didn't make eye contact meant another minute sitting in the chairs. They both wanted out so all they could do was sit there and look at each other.

Felicia looked at Maria's pouting face while Maria looked at Felicia's angry scowl. They each thought the other one looked ridiculous! In reality, they were being ridiculous to fight and be mad at each other over nothing.

Soon Maria couldn't stand it any longer and began giggling and so did Felicia. They giggled and laughed.

Mom wisely didn't say anything except, "Okay girls, you can go now."
