End Of Man:

The Moral Dignity of Man Peter E. Bristow, 1997 Many of today's moral conflicts concerning family values and medical ethics have their basis in different conceptions of man and the nature and purpose of human life. Fr Bristow argues that contemporary utilitarianism and the various forms of permissive morality are insufficient for dealing with these matters and that only a natural law morality is adequate to the needs and dignity of the human person. He goes on to apply its principles to the issues that derive from advancing technology such as genetic engineering, in vitro fertilization, embryo research, drugs, and painkillers, and ecology.
