Globalisation For The Common Good:

Globalisation for the Common Good Kamran Mofid,2002 Although many attempts have been made by international organizations like the World Bank and IMF to raise living standards the dire poverty of billions of people and the widening gap between rich and poor both within and between countries point to the failure of these policies Globalisation for the Common Good Kamran Mofid,2008 A Reflection on Africa and Globalisation for the Common Good ,2005

Media and the Common Good Chaacha Mwita,G. Franceschi,2010 On 30th December 2008 the President of Kenya His Excellency Mwai Kibaki assented to the controversial Kenya Communications Amendment Act 2008 which commenced on 2nd January 2009 This Presidential move had a deep impact on the long discussions arguments and negotiations that were already in high gear by October 2006 when the Fourth Annual Ethics Conference on Media and the Common Good was held at Strathmore University Nairobi Kenya The essays in this book make a case for media freedom as well as media responsibility Let the media create a culture of truth Let the media not forsake the citizens let them seek and disseminate the truth let them not destroy the education virtues and faith for which so many have shed their blood in Kenya Africa and elsewhere May reason prevail guided by wisdom towards Truth Globalization and Identity B. Lum,2017-07-05 In the first decade of the twenty first century globalization and identity have emerged as the most critical challenges to world peace This volume of Peace Policy addresses the overarching question What are the effects of globalization in the areas of culture ethnic diversity religion and citizenship and how does terrorism help groups attain a sense of global identity Part I Citizenship in a Globalizing World reexamines globalization in light of the traditions from which human civilizations have evolved Linda Groff focuses on Samuel R Huntington s thesis that the Cold War would be followed by a clash of civilizations Joseph A Camilleri traces the history of the concept of citizenship and its transformation through the ages to modern times Kamran Mofid argues that the marketplace is not just an economic sphere but one where economic and business interests must embrace the spiritual assets of the community Majid Tehranian raises the problem of identity and advocates the assumption of global identity responsibility and citizenship Part II Convergence in Global Cultures explores the complex issues of diversity in religions Christopher Leeds Vladimir Korobov and Bharapt Gupt show how the reconceptualization of the world both geographically and regionally can recreate new sensibilities needed to overcome differences Part III Divergence in Global Conflicts discusses the multiple dimensions of the globalizing effects of economic expansion and political strife experienced by different cultures at local and regional levels Audrey Kitigawa and Ade Ogunrinade use Nigeria as an example of political manipulation of religious and ethnic groups to divert attention from the real problems of social and economic marginalization Fred Riggs looks at how the Web has become a medium in the globalization of religious movements The authors maintain that continuing efforts for dialogue across cultural and religious boundaries in today s Business, Ethics and Peace Manas Chatterji,Luk Bouckaert,2015-09-23 This volume gathers a selection of papers presented at the International SPES

Conference Business for Peace Strategies for Hope held in Ypres in April 2014 The papers illustrate the impact of religion in peace management and present solutions and practices for corporate peace building Globalization & Identity Majid Tehranian, B. Jeannie Lum, 2006 In the first decade of the twenty first century globalization and identity have emerged as the most critical challenges to world peace This volume of Peace Policy addresses the overarching question What are the effects of globalization in the areas of culture ethnic diversity religion and citizenship and how does terrorism help groups attain a sense of global identity Part I Citizenship in a Globalizing World reexamines globalization in light of the traditions from which human civilizations have evolved Linda Groff focuses on Samuel R Huntington s thesis that the Cold War would be followed by a clash of civilizations Joseph A Camilleri traces the history of the concept of citizenship and its transformation through the ages to modern times Kamran Mofid argues that the marketplace is not just an economic sphere but one where economic and business interests must embrace the spiritual assets of the community Majid Tehranian raises the problem of identity and advocates the assumption of global identity responsibility and citizenship Part II Convergence in Global Cultures explores the complex issues of diversity in religions Christopher Leeds Vladimir Korobov and Bharapt Gupt show how the reconceptualization of the world both geographically and regionally can recreate new sensibilities needed to overcome differences Part III Divergence in Global Conflicts discusses the multiple dimensions of the globalizing effects of economic expansion and political strife experienced by different cultures at local and regional levels Audrey Kitigawa and Ade Ogunrinade use Nigeria as an example of political manipulation of religious and ethnic groups to divert attention from the real problems of social and economic marginalization Fred Riggs looks at how the Web has become a medium in the globalization of religious movements The authors maintain that continuing efforts for dialogue across cultural and religious boundaries in today s interreligious and interfaith organizations can become a force for healing Majid Tehranian is director of the Toda Institute for Global Peace and Policy Research B Jeannie Lum is an associate professor at the University of Hawaii at Mnoa in the Department of Educational Foundations College of Education Globalization and the Limits of National Merger Control Laws Joseph Wilson, 2003-02-01 The proliferation of merger control laws in the absence of a mechanism to coordinate the transnational merger review places an unnecessary burden on merging parties and runs the risk of divergent outcomes which at times cause friction among nation states Globalisation for the Common Good Globalisation for the common good initiative, 2006 Building a World Community Jacques Baudot, 2001 Building a World Community Globalisation and the Common Good Absolute Poverty and Global Justice Michael Schramm, Thomas Pogge, 2016-03-23 Absolute poverty causes about one third of all human deaths some 18 million annually and blights billions of lives with hunger and disease Developing universalizable norms aimed at tackling absolute poverty and the complex and multilayered problems associated with it this book considers the levels trends and determinants of absolute poverty and global inequality Examining whether much faster progress against absolute poverty is possible through reductions in national and global inequalities that produce economic growth for poor countries and households this book suggests that diverse moral views imply that international agencies as well as the citizens corporations and governments of affluent countries bear a moral responsibility to reduce absolute poverty In considering strategies of eradication through specific policies and structural reforms it is argued that because of its moral importance and requirement for only modest efforts and resources the goal of overcoming absolute poverty must be given much higher political priority by international agencies and governments of affluent countries Suggesting that these agencies should be encouraged to facilitate and promote new initiatives this book concludes with a discussion of how such initiatives might be realized

Democracy and Development Bernard Berendsen,2008 This book addresses questions like what comes first democracy or development is there a choice between democracy and stability can democracy be promoted from outside should we focus on the introduction of democratic institutions or on the promotion of democratic culture and are different cultures equally compatible with democratic systems of government Finally should the promotion of democracy be seen as part of regular development co operation and what are the respective roles of national governments international organisations and civil society The book suggests there is a positive relationship between the two more democracy implies more openness and checks and balances more accountability and less corruption and all this would be conducive to sustainable development Based on a series of lectures organised by the Society of International Development SID the Netherlands

Providing Global Public Goods Inge Kaul,Pedro Conceicao,Katell Le Goulven,Ronald U. Mendoza,2003-01-16 Elaborating on the concepts first introduced in Global Public Goods this book addresses the long overdue issue of how to adjust the concept of public goods to today s economic and political realities The production of global public goods requires the orchestration of initiatives by a large number of diverse actors across different levels and sectors It may require the collaboration of governments business and civil society and in most cases it almost certainly calls for an effective linkage of the local national regional and global levels In light of today s new realities this book examines a series of managerial and political challenges that pertain to the design and implementation of production strategies and the monitoring and evaluation of global public goods provision As participatory decision making enhances the political support for and thus the effectiveness of certain policy decisions this volume offers suggestions on a number of pragmatic policy reforms for bringing the global public more into public policy making on global issues Nine case studies examine the importance of the global public good concept from the viewpoint of developing countries exploring how and where the concerns of the poor and the rich overlap Providing Global Public Goods offers important and timely suggestions on how to move in a more feasible and systematic way towards a fairer process of globalization that works in the interests of all
