Encounters Jeri R. Givens, 1994-06-01 Encounters William R. Epperson, 1995-12-01 1 & 2 Samuel (Teach the Text Commentary Series) Robert B. Chisholm, Jr., 2013-03-15 The Teach the Text Commentary Series utilizes the best of biblical scholarship to provide the information a pastor needs to communicate the text effectively The carefully selected preaching units and focused commentary allow pastors to quickly grasp the big idea and key themes of each passage of Scripture Each unit of the commentary includes the big idea and key themes of the passage and sections dedicated to understanding teaching and illustrating the text

Connecting Reading & Writing in Second Language Writing Instruction Alan Hirvela, 2004-08-20 Academic writing often requires students to incorporate material from outside sources like statistics ideas quotations paraphrases into their own written texts a particular obstacle for students who lack strong reading skills In Connecting Reading and Writing in Second Language Instruction Alan Hirvela contends that second language writing students should be considered as readers first and advocates the integration of reading and writing instruction with a survey of theory research and pedagogy in the subject area Although the integrated reading writing model has gained popularity in recent years many teachers have little more than an intuitive sense of the connections between these skills As part of the popular Michigan Series on Teaching Multilingual Writers Connecting Reading and Writing in Second Language Instruction will provide invaluable background knowledge on this issue to ESL teachers in training as well as teachers who are already practicing

Creation and Composition Jeffrey L. Rubenstein, 2005 The contributors to this book analyze how the redactors of the Talmud transformed and reworked earlier aggadic non legal traditions Critical study of the Babylonian Talmud is founded on the distinction between two literary strata traditions attributed to named sages the Amora'im c 200 450 CE and setam hatalmud the unattributed or anonymous material The conclusion of modern scholars is that the anonymous stratum postdates the Amoraic stratum and should be attributed to the Talmudic redactors also known as Stammaim c 450 700 CE The contribution of the Stammaim to the aggadic non legal portions of the Talmud to midrash narratives ethics and theology has received minimal scholarly attention The articles in this book demonstrate that the Stammaim made a profound contribution to the aggadic portions of the Babylonian Talmud and illustrate the processes by which they created and composed many aggadic traditions

Making Writing Matter Ann M. Feldman, 2009-01-01 In Making Writing Matter Ann M Feldman explores how changing scholarship at engaged metropolitan universities offers an opportunity to redesign first year writing classes in ways that make students better writers An engaged university commits to a relationship with its surrounding metropolitan area with faculty members undertaking collaborative research with community partners The more vibrant participatory role of an engaged university allows students to link their academic studies to important public issues and gain real world writing experience such as writing press releases and letters to organizations This newly focused and contextualized research and scholarship at engaged universities shows students how discourse and writing matter in new ways Experimental Politics and the Making of Worlds Anja Kanngieser, 2016-04-15 Creative strategies have been central to global social movements From the theatrics of the 1999 Seattle protests to the rebel clowns at the 2005 G8 summit in Gleneagles and the antics of the Yes Men the crossovers between art and politics have increasingly become more visible and prolific This book explores an innovative form of creative and communicative politics the performative encounter as a strategy for facilitating new ways of being relating and making worlds Unlike existing scholarship that frames such encounters in artistic or cultural terms this book analyzes performative encounters through an organizational lens to accentuate their social political potential engaging a wealth of material from autonomist philosophy political science performance studies geography and social movement texts Intertwining conceptual and ethnographic research it uniquely maps out one narrative of the encounter tracing a line through the twentieth century from the Berlin Dadaists to the Situationist International to several contemporary German collectives and campaigns showing how performative encounters intervene in global and local issues such as the privatization of public space and resources human mobility and the corporatization of education
