

A still life photograph of garlic. In the foreground, a large, partially peeled garlic bulb sits on a dark, reflective surface, with its golden-brown papery skins peeling away. To its left, two individual garlic cloves are positioned: one is whole and dark, while the other is partially peeled, revealing its lighter interior. The background is a dark, textured surface, possibly a stone or wood, which adds to the rustic feel of the composition. The lighting is dramatic, highlighting the textures of the garlic skins and the smoothness of the cloves.
