From Medicine Men To Muhammad:

From Primitives to Zen: From medicine men to Muhammad Mircea Eliade,1974 From Medicine Men to Muhammad
Mircea Eliade,1967 Journal of the Federated Malay States Museums ,1922 Muhammad's Grave Leor Halevi,2011 In this probing study of death rites Leor Halevi plays prescriptive texts against material culture advancing a new way of interpreting the origins of Islam He shows how religious scholars produced codes of funerary law to create new social patterns in the cities of Arabia Mesopotamia and the eastern Mediterranean They distinguished Islamic from Christian Jewish and Zoroastrian rites and they changed the way men and women interacted publicly and privately Each chapter explores a different layer of human interaction following the movement of the corpse from the deathbed to the grave Highlighting economic and political factors as well as key religious and sexual divisions Halevi forges a fascinating link between the development of funerary rites and the efforts of an emerging religion to carve its own distinct identity Muhammad s Grave is a groundbreaking history of the rise of Islam and the roots of contemporary Muslim attitudes toward the body and society

Zamalek Chafika Soliman Hamamsy,2005 Between the reign of Muhammad Ali Pasha 1805 48 and the end of the Second World War a dramatic transformation of the Egyptian sociopolitical scene took place particularly within the confines of the ruling class During that period and owing in large measure to Muhammad Ali s reforms a new class system emerged with its revised gradations from lower to upper strata The central concern of this book is the change that took place in upper class Egyptian society from a staunch conservatism toward more westernized liberal norms in the hundred years spanning the turn of the nineteenth century The district of Zamalek on the Nile island of Gezira became for a variety of reasons the preferred neighborhood for a fast growing rapidly evolving upper middle class and by the mid 1920s it had become the abode of an elite group whose way of life was manifestly more westernized than that of its predecessors Zamalek was the focal point of social change and its elite role models actively engaged in the creation of these new social norms By following the lives of one family this book describes how these people lived interreacted and changed often under the impetus of international events and looks at some of the beliefs and traditions upon which their life was based As Egypt enters the twenty first century with a noticeable reappearance of the veil and an apparent return to the values of the past this account by someone who grew up within that group is a timely examination of the social westernization of twentieth century Egypt the forces that led to it and the events that made it possible Modern Egypt New York Public Library,Ida Augusta Pratt,1929 Malay Magic Walter William Skeat,1900
