Globalizationworld Of Large Cities:

Globalization and the World of Large Cities Fu-chen Lo, Yue-man Yeung, 1998 In this volume the world's urban future is analyzed through a number of critical themes that relate to globalization such as urban corridors Islamic cities new technologies transport and telecommunications financial centers and food issues World cities are discussed not simply for the functions they perform in the global economy but also to examine the processes by which they came to perform those functions The book builds upon a series of regional research projects focused on mega cities sponsored by the United Nations University Rich in theoretical and policy perspectives it is balanced by cross regional and cultural empirical analyses data and illustrations Its conclusions will be helpful to scholars and planners in developed and developing nations

Ranking the Liveability of the World's Major Cities Khee Giap Tan, 2012 This unique volume aims to provide a first comprehensive assessment on attributes conditions and characters which constitute a liveable city The book posits that the degree of liveability depends on five themes satisfaction with the freedom from want satisfaction with the state of the natural environment and its management satisfaction with freedom from fear satisfaction with the socio cultural conditions and satisfaction with public governance The authors attempt to be more constructive through performing policy simulations by first identifying relative weaknesses and strengths of 64 global cities across major continents including European Asian Middle Eastern North and South American cities The book also ranks and simulates 36 Asian cities separately of which many are emerging third world cities that are in need of policy guidance

Branding Chinese Mega-Cities Per Olof Berg, Emma Bj_rner, 2014-04-25 This interdisciplinary book details the economic cultural and social background of the development of Chinese mega cities as well as presenting the mechanisms of governance and urban growth strategies Therein the main discussion centres on the cont

The Scale of Urban Change Worldwide 1950-2000 and Its Underpinnings David Satterthwaite, 2005

Cities in a Globalizing World World Bank, 2006 In 2003 3 billion people 48 per cent of the world's population lived in urban areas By 2020 that will have risen to 4.1 billion people 55 per cent of the world's population with nearly all the growth coming in the developing countries By 2015 there will be 22 megacities cities or agglomerations with a population of more than 8 million and 475 cities with populations exceeding 1 million At the same time globalisation is the driving force behind economic growth and development Cities will have to compete for investment provide security and access to services and urban infrastructure for the growing populations This will present enormous challenges for local government This publication examines the dynamics and links between globalisation urbanisation and local governance showing how crucial they will become for sustainable development

Cities of the World Stanley D. Brunn, Maureen Hays-Mitchell, Donald J. Zeigler, 2008 A fifth edition of this book is now available This fully updated and revised fourth edition of the classic text offers readers a comprehensive set of tools for understanding the urban landscape and by extension the world's politics cultures and economies Providing a sweeping overview of world urban geography a group of noted experts explores the eleven major global regions Liberally illustrated with a new selection of photographs maps and diagrams the text also includes a rich array of boxed vignettes Clearly written and timely this text will be invaluable for those teaching introductory or advanced classes on global cities regional geography and urban studies Cities in a World Economy Saskia Sassen,2018-05-30 Cities in a World Economy examines the emergence of global cities as a new social formation As sites of rapid and widespread developments in the areas of finance information and people global cities lie at the core of the major processes of globalization The book features a cross disciplinary approach to urban sociology using global examples and discusses the impact of global processes on the social structure of cities The Fifth Edition reflects the most current data available and explores recent debates such as the role of cities in mitigating environmental problems the global refugee crisis Brexit and the rise of Donald Trump in the United States Medium-Sized Cities in the Age of Globalisation Inès Hassen-Dakhli,2023-07-10 Medium Sized Cities in the Age of Globalisation provides a brand new perspective on academic discussions of globalisation through exploring urban development outside of select global cities including Paris Tokyo and London and instead focuses on medium sized cities in the context of a globalising world Combining the author s expertise with extensive research this book fills a gap in the scholarly debate on globalisation and urban development with chapters of the book giving detailed insight on urban governance and economy local identity and urban representation Through a range of visual sources including maps tables and graphs the book is applicable and accessible and offers a specialised analysis of medium sized cities through assessing urban regeneration policies as well as promotional activities and their role in promoting positive change in an era of great inter urban competition This book contains valuable historical insights and is excellent specialised material for scholars and postgraduate students in the disciplines of Urban History Urban Studies and Geography as well as being a significant source for professionals working in urban planning and place promotion Modern Urban and Regional Economics Philip McCann,2013-01-31 The second edition of this accessible text provides an integrated framework of the study of urban and regional economics It offers a concise and up to date introduction to the main foundational models principles and theories of the subject and uses a range of international examples to illustrate ideas Mega Cities Lothar Beckel,2001 Globalization and the Sustainability of Cities in the Asia Pacific Region Fu-chen Lo,Peter Marcotullio,2001 This collection of essays examines the sustainability concerns surrounding social and environmental conditions in the major cities of the Asia Pacific region Issues considered include globalisation foreign direct investment international migration and the changing pattern of cities The second part of the book focuses on particular types of cities with case studies post industrial capital exporting cities such as Tokyo and Seoul borderless cities such as Hong Kong and Singapore industrial cities such as Shanghai and Bangkok and amenity cities such as Sydney International Social Science Journal ,2004 State of the World's Cities 2010/2011 ,2010 One billion people worldwide live in slums and that figure is predicted to reach 2 billion by 2030 This new volume from UN HABITAT unpacks the complex social and economic issues using the novel conceptual framework of the urban divide The Brown Journal of World Affairs ,2004

Publications United Nations University. Press,2003 Cities on the Plains James R. Shortridge,2004 Drawing on rich historical research filtered through cultural geography Shortridge looks at the 118 communities that ever achieved a population of 2 500 and unravels the many factors that influenced the growth of urban Kansas He tells how mercantilism dominated urban thinking in territorial days until after statehood when cities competed for the capital prisons universities and other institutions He also shows how geography and size were employed by entrepreneurs and government officials to prepare strategies for economic development And he describes how the railroads especially promoted the founding of cities in the nineteenth century and how this system has fared since 1950 in the face of globalization and the growth of interstate highways BOOK JACKET North American Cities and the Global Economy Peter Karl Kresl,Gary Gappert,1995-07-18 As the global economy becomes ever more interconnected what role will North American cities play What challenges will North American cities encounter as they become more integrated in the world economy The contributors to this groundbreaking volume examine these questions and offer a candid analysis of urban economics in a global age Taking a multidisciplinary approach contributors address such salient issues as the politics of international engagement planning strategic linkages between cities cross border interaction and networking in North America wage polarization and urban competitiveness Scholars and students in the fields of urban studies economics international studies and urban planning will find this an invaluable resource In addition this volume will also serve a key resource for city practitioners Globalization and Mega-city Development in Pacific Asia Jacob Park,1997 Nature and Resources ,1999 Globalization and the Changing U.S. City David Wilson,1997 The contributors show how US city politics is adapting to the new globalization accelerated by the ever growing proportion of immigrants and how the problems of the urban underclass racial segregation housing and education are being redefined
