in Elvis's white Cadillac to the house they had rented from Judge Crawford. That night we sat down to dinner with Elvis at one end of the table and his father at the other. Then his grandmother. There was a big platter of white bread for sandwich makings and a big platter of southern baked beans. That was topped off with a delicious pie his Grandmammy had baked. Elvis looked at me with a shy little smile and said, "I hope you like our southern cooking." Elvis Presley liked traditional southern cooking. In Fit for a King™ are more than 300 recipes for the foods Elvis enjoyed, including many from his longtime cook, Alvena Roy. Also included are menus for meals served at Graceland for Elvis and Priscilla's wedding reception for the Beatles' visit and for Christmas in Memphis. The memories Elvis's friends have of mealtimes with him at Graceland depict him as a thoughtful, considerate, and fun-loving person. Many of the seventy photographs are published here for the first time.
