Frederic Edwin Church--the Icebergs Gerald L. Carr,1980 Frederic Edwin Church Gerald L. Carr,1980 The Voyage of the Icebergs Eleanor Jones Harvey,Frederic Edwin Church,Gerald L. Carr,Dallas Museum of Art,2002 Twelve days after the onset of the American Civil War in April of 1861 Frederic Edwin Church the most successful American landscape painter of his day debuted his latest Great Picture a painting titled The North Despite favorable reviews the painting failed to find a buyer Faced with this unexpected setback Church added a broken mast to the foreground and changed the work s title to The Icebergs He then shipped the painting to London where it was finally sold to an English railroad magnate and subsequently disappeared from view for 116 years This beautiful book tells the fascinating story of The Icebergs and provides a detailed look at the cycle of fame neglect and resuscitation of both this masterwork and Church s career In 1979 The Icebergs sold at auction for 2.5 million at the time the highest amount ever paid for an American painting The sale coincided with an upswing in the popularity and acclaim accorded to American landscape painting catalyzing the market for American art and contributing to a revival in the prestige of Church and the Hudson River School Drawing on extensive interviews with many of the people involved with the painting s rediscovery sale and eventual donation to the Dallas Museum of Art the author considers the way marketing has defined The Icebergs

Publisher s description Frederic Edwin Church Dallas Museum of Fine Arts,Gerald L. Carr,1980 Frederic Church Jennifer Raab,2015-10-29 Frederic Church 1826-1900 the most celebrated painter in the United States during the mid 19th century created monumental landscapes of North and South America the Arctic and the Middle East These paintings were unsurpassed in their attention to detail yet the significance of this pictorial approach has remained largely unexplored In this important reconsideration of Church s works Jennifer Raab offers the first sustained examination of the aesthetics of detail that fundamentally shaped 19th century American landscape painting Moving between historical context and close readings of famous canvases including Niagara The Heart of the Andes and The Icebergs Raab argues that Church's art challenged an earlier model of painting based on symbolic unity revealing a representation of nature with surprising connections to scientific discourses of the time The book traces Church's movement away from working in oil on canvas to shaping the physical landscape of Olana his self designed estate on the Hudson River a move that allowed the artist to rethink scale and process while also engaging with pressing ecological questions Beautifully illustrated with dramatic spreads and striking details of Church's works Frederic Church The Art and Science of Detail offers a profoundly new understanding of this canonical artist

Indecent Exposures Sarah Gordon, 2015-10-27 Photographer Eadweard Muybridge 1830-1904 often termed the father of the motion picture presented his iconic Animal Locomotion series in 1877 Produced under the auspices of the University of Pennsylvania and encompassing thousands of photographs of humans and animals in motion the series included more than 300 plates of nude men and women engaged in activities such as swinging a baseball bat playing leapfrog and performing housework an astonishing fact given the period's standards of propriety In the first sustained examination of these nudes and the remarkable success of their production wide circulation and reception Indecent Exposures positions this revolutionary enterprise as central to crucial advancements of the modern era Muybridge's nudes ushered in new attitudes toward science and progress including Darwinian ideas about human evolution and hierarchy quickened debates over the role of photography and scientific investigation in art and offered innovative perspectives on the human body This fascinating story is copiously illustrated and includes many lesser known photographs published here for the first time
