Political Reform In Francophone Africa John F Clark, 2018-02-07 Most African states experienced only a few fleeting years of democratic rule after independence before succumbing to authoritarianism During the 1970s and 1980s Africans and Westerners alike came to view dictatorship to be as much a part of the region's social landscape as its grinding poverty. Yet the end of the Cold War and the sharpening of the economic crisis at the end of the 1980s have breathed new life into campaigns for democracy in Africa shaking the foundations of many long standing autocracies. In some cases dramatic transitions took place though the fate of the new democracies is far from certain. This volume explores the origins and evolution of political reform movements in several states of francophone Africa. The authors first make the case for the distinctiveness of francophone Africa based on the influences of colonial history language and France's contemporary role in Africa then survey the challenges of reform including the problems of transition from authoritarianism and consolidation of democratic regimes. Case studies of thirteen former French and Belgian colonies follow organized by level of reform achieved peaceful regime change incremental reforms repressed reform efforts and reform in the midst of war

Contemporary French Security Policy in Africa Benedikt Erforth, 2019-07-25 Despite efforts to normalize its post colonial relationship and the downsizing of its permanent military presence France remains a sought after security provider in Africa. This book uncovers individual and collective motivations that drive French foreign and security policy in Africa. It explains French interventionism by drawing on actors subjective perceptions of reality and seeks to answer why French decision makers are ready to accept the considerable risks and costs involved in guaranteeing the security of African countries. Adopting an actor centric constructivist ontology the author traces the emergence and subsequent development of ideas throughout the decision making processes that led to Operation Serval in Mali and Operation Sangaris in the Central African Republic
