Contesting Elder Abuse and Neglect Joan R. Harbison, 2016-12-23 The mistreatment of older people is categorized in many societies as elder abuse and neglect yet the concept has not been subjected to rigorous critical inquiry Instead it has most often represented the interests of professionals academics and governments while policy makers and researchers frequently overlook or disregard the complexity of issues that fall under this designation Contesting Elder Abuse and Neglect questions existing understandings about the mistreatment of older people It explores how and why the designation elder abuse and neglect came to be and shows how this term masks problems concerning the mistreatment of older people their place in society and how they see themselves Joan R Harbison and her colleagues expose how supposed solutions to the problem of abuse can take their toll on those people they were originally intended to protect The book is an important contribution to the literature that encourages new thinking about issues concerning the mistreatment of older people

Bibliographic Resources on Elder Abuse in Japan, North America and England, 2004 Elder Abuse and Neglect in Canada Lynn McDonald, 1991 Elder Mistreatment Tanya F. Johnson, 1991-03-30 Mistreatment of the elderly became recognized as a serious and growing problem in the late 1970s as a result of governmental investigations and research in the public and private sectors Although in most states elder mistreatment is handled by social service agencies other professionals are also needed to broaden the identification team and help alleviate the risk to the older adults This book is designed for human services professionals who are not necessarily adult protective services specialists but who provide direct ongoing services to elder adults Its purpose is to offer guidelines for detecting elder mistreatment so that assistance can be given to the vulnerable older adults to preserve their particular quality of life The book is arranged into seven chapters The first discusses why elder serving human services professionals should become involved in mistreatment identification while chapter two focuses on the various starting points in the definition of elder mistreatment Chapters three and four review research on risk factors in elder mistreatment and detail varieties of mistreatment measures and methods for distinguishing between them A review of risk instruments used in adult protective services and non adult protective services settings forms the basis of chapter five and chapter six outlines a proposed risk assessment model specially designed for elder serving human service professionals The final chapter offers some prospects for the future of elder mistreatment risk assessments The work concludes with a set of four appendices covering contact persons in lead agencies report receiving authorities within jurisdictions health status risk assessment and prevention strategies This volume will be a useful tool for human services professionals mental health care providers and social health care and legal services professionals as well as a useful addition to reference collections in public academic and medical libraries Advances in Elder Abuse Research Amanda Phelan,2020-01-01 This book provides an insight into advances in elder abuse in the areas of research policy practice and legislation It provides readers with a broad understanding of the topic and considers the progress in elder abuse knowledge The book explores the nexus of ageism and elder abuse describes key social policies and their legislative manifestation covers major policies and programs related to elder abuse defines elder sexual abuse and much more It offers the reader a comprehensive insight into new perspectives and approaches to both understanding and responding to elder abuse As such it will be an asset to academics students healthcare practitioners policy makers and the general public The Wiley Handbook on the Psychology of Violence Carlos A. Cuevas,Callie Marie Rennison,2016-01-21 The Wiley Handbook on the Psychology of Violence features a collection of original readings from an international cast of experts that explore all major issues relating to the psychology of violence and aggressive behaviors Features original contributions from an interdisciplinary cast of scholars leading experts in their fields of study Includes the latest violence research and its implications for practice and policy Offers coverage of current issues relating to violence such as online violence and cybercriminal behavior Covers additional topics such as juvenile violence sexual violence family violence and various violence issues relating to underserved and or understudied populations Nursing Care of the Older Adult Mildred O. Hogstel,1994 Gerontology Review ,1988 Homeward Bound Amy Zietlow,Naomi Cahn,2017-03-08 Homeward Bound draws on qualitative interviews with family caregivers to explore how the legal frameworks that define the elder care burial and wealth transfer process are understood accessed ignored or fall short It pays close attention to the ways a family s internal norms and structure define these experiences and their relationship to the law Work with Older People Irene A. Gutheil,1994 The increasing need for trained and knowledgeable service providers to work with the aging has been well documented in recent studies Gutheil writes in her introduction growth in the number and proportion of older persons is one of the most dramatic and influential developments of this century and we must anticipate and address the needs of this burgeoning older population One anticipated result of the increasing numbers of older persons especially the oldest old is an unprecedented demand for support services for older people and their families By bringing together practitioners and educators active in the field of elder care this book examines current concerns and practice issues Several topics now receiving considerable attention in the fields of aging and social work such as elder abuse ethical issues in long term care the challenges of interdisciplinary teamwork and the impact of our current economic environment on social agencies are brought together for the first time in this volume Timely chapters incorporate current thinking on concerns professionals struggle with on a daily basis The chapters reflect the remarkable diversity of the challenges and opportunities in work with older people Some of these challenges are frustrating some invigorating there are many opportunities for stimulating and gratifying practice A valuable tool for both classroom use and for professionals in direct practice the book contains two sections the first provides foundation knowledge essential for work with older people and their families the second examines current issues in the field of aging There are the kinds of complex issues that confront professionals in social work gerontology counseling and other fields with a commitment to serving older people and their families
