Falun Gong Principles And Exercises For The Path To Enlightenment:

Searching for Spiritual Unity . . . Can There Be Common Ground? Robyn E. Lebron, 2016-02-11 Searching for Spirituality is an introductory course on forty of the world's most practiced or most misunderstood religions. Originally born out of author Robyn Lebron's efforts to create a Christian education course for her husband's congregation, this easy-to-follow reference guide to international religious beliefs is designed to reduce the fear and skepticism that often comes when we encounter belief systems different than our own, with the ultimate goal of promoting peace and spiritual unity throughout the world. Covering a broad array of different faiths from mainstream Christian denominations to Buddhism to Islam, Searching for Spiritual Unity breaks down each religion into eleven categories to allow for easy comparative discussions: history, doctrine, God or gods, the role of Jesus Christ, worship practices, infant baptism or blessing, confirmation or initiation, marriage, death, and afterlife judgment, and any special doctrines. Also included are pages for taking notes and comparison charts that can be used as a quick-at-a-glance reference. Did you know that pagan beliefs almost line up perfectly with Christian concepts: voodoo dolls are not commonly used by those who practice Voodoo; Muslims believe in Jesus Christ's mission; the fastest growing religion today is also one of the youngest. Take the challenge to educate yourself and replace skepticism and fear with peace and understanding.

Changing Cultures of Ageing and Spirituality Elizabeth MacKinlay, Ann Harrington, 2023-09-12 This book addresses important issues of ageing and spirituality and reflects on the impact of culture on both constructs. The papers are contemporary in that they include excerpts of cultural impact on spirituality from New Zealand, Singapore, India, United Kingdom, Australia, and the United States. This book marks almost 20 years of international conferences on ageing and spirituality that commenced in January 2000. It opens the conversation to all who were part of this journey of ageing, including older people, practitioners in ageing and aged care, researchers, and those who reflect on the process of growing older. Chapters feature diverse perspectives highlighting the need for inclusivity in conversations that surround ageing and recognize how development of cultures is influenced by the society where they emerge and by minority groups within larger society. Chapters also note the occurrence of subcultures of ageing and aged care. The conference was held shortly before the onset of the COVID-19 pandemic, with the chapters being written often during times of lockdown. Their content reflects the importance of spirituality in times of isolation and can show ways of reaching out to vulnerable older people of various faiths and cultures, whatever their situations. Changing Cultures of Ageing and Spirituality will be a key resource for academics, researchers, and advanced students of Theology, Divinity, and Religious Studies, Gerontology, Sociology, Psychology, Mental Health, and Nursing. The chapters included in this book were originally published as a special issue of Journal of Religion, Spirituality, Aging.

Zhuan Falun Hongzhi Li, 2001 The goal of Falun Gong is to encourage people in a spiritual and physical practice that improves the body, mind, and spirit. Zhuan Falun is an exploration of the key concepts of Falun Gong, focusing on the concepts of truthfulness, compassion, and forbearance.

Among the topics covered are the origins of qigong and the long forgotten meaning of self cultivation and the roots of illness and the fundamental Falun Gong method of healing It also covers the meaning of enlightenment
