

A woman with long, wavy hair is shown in profile, looking down at a stack of books. The scene is lit with a warm, golden light, creating a soft and intimate atmosphere. The woman's hair is dark and voluminous, cascading over her shoulders. The books are stacked on a surface, and the woman's hands are visible as she rests them on the books. The overall mood is contemplative and serene.

George,2001-08-30 The continuing cultural encounters of the Americas between European and indigenous cultures and between scientific materialism and premodern supernaturalism have originated new narrative forms While supernatural short fiction of the Americas belongs to the broad category of the fantastic which is generally approached synchronically reading audiences of the past 200 years have shifted their beliefs about the supernatural several times While nineteenth century readers understood science as real and the supernatural as imaginary modern audiences recognize both as inaccurate a shift which allows authors of supernatural fiction to celebrate premodern indigenous beliefs which were once disdained by a materialist culture This book situates supernatural short fiction of the Americas within the changing cultural and epistemological contexts of the last 200 years and explores how authors have drawn upon a wealth of indigenous traditions The book begins with a discussion of theories of the supernatural and the fantastic It then looks at some of the first encounters of European and Native American supernatural beliefs and points to the common elements of these early traditions The volume next focuses on American literature of the nineteenth century which has a complex fusion of materialist biases and metaphysical fascinations The final portion of the book gives greater attention to Spanish American literature and the blending of the supernatural with attitudes of nostalgia and uncertainty Midamerica ,1983 Focus On: 100 Most Popular Fantasy Anime and Manga Wikipedia contributors, The Year's Best Fantasy and Horror: Tenth Annual Collection Ellen Datlow,Terri Windling,1997-07-15 This acclaimed series winner of numerous World Fantasy Awards continues its tradition of excellence with scores of short stories from such writers as Michael Bishop Edward Bryant Angela Carter Terry Lamsley Gabriel Garcia Marquez A R Morlan Robert Silverberg Michael Swanwick Jane Yolen and many others Supplementing the stories are the editors invaluable overviews of the year in fantastic fiction Edward Bryant s witty roundup of the year s fantasy films and a long list of Honorable Mentions all of which adds up to an invaluable reference source and a font of fabulous reading Catalogue of English Prose Fiction ,1901 Narcissistic Fantasies in Film and Fiction Ilany Kogan,2020-04-01 This book has grown from a belief that the psychoanalytic exploration of literature and performances leads to a richer and fuller understanding of each individual s internal reality It includes an exploration of narcissistic fantasies from various protagonists of film and novels and focuses on the fantasy of the omnipotence of the self which is a predominantly narcissistic desire to be a Master of the Universe a deity an omnipotent immortal figure Psychoanalysis and art interact in exploring the individual s refusal to give up grandiose fantasies about the self or his inability to modulate and integrate them within his personality which are at the origin of his wish to transcend the human condition These narcissistic fantasies are often expressed through aggressive and self destructive behaviour including flirtation with death and destruction The emotional truth that great artists convey through symbols which often resonates in the audience is examined in this book through studies and comparisons of narcissistic characters in opera film and contemporary fiction Identifying with these figures who place themselves above the law may give us the illusion of omnipotence and immortality which corresponds to a primary narcissistic fantasy the traces of which exist in various degrees in all of us Part of the popular International Psychoanalytical Association Psychoanalytic Ideas and Applications Series this book is unique in its focus on the narcissistic fantasy of the omnipotence of the self by means of an analysis of a variety of protagonists from the worlds of the performing arts and literature and on the exploration of their impact on the audience It will be of interest to psychoanalysts therapists and those with an interest in the intersection of psychoanalytic theory with film and literature
